Each September, Homecoming at this congregation is a time to reaffirm that this is a community of welcome and belonging.

We will bring the lessons of our summer experiences to enrich the new congregational year. And we will acknowledge that we are connected to each other and to a legacy of commitment and generosity of spirit.

This new congregational year comes as we continue to ride the wave of corona virus outbreaks and to define our “new normal.” Our worship and programming continues to be nourishing and flourishing while also being flexible and adaptive.

Over the last two years, we have learned that personal connections and a sense of belonging are needed for our well-being, health, and wholeness. We will continue to be a place for community, both in-person and online. Know that here the door is open—come join us.

This is a place where you can belong.

A Message from the President

After months of listening and talking to many, many members of Shelter Rock, the Strategic Plan Task Force finalized a 5-year outline for congregational life at UUCSR. It was approved by the Board of Trustees in June.

The three areas that members most want to see improved are:
- Community
- Spiritual Deepening
- Opportunities to Serve

To increase the sense of Community in our congregation, members asked for more programs that interest youth and intergenerational groups and hoped for more committee events that further UUCSR’s vision and mission. There was also a call for more opportunities for coming together spiritually, in addition to Sunday Services. More creative use of outside grounds and Friday nights which could offer the congregation different ways for Spiritual Deepening were two suggestions made over and over again by many members.

I hope you all have had a chance to watch the renovation to the upper meadow this summer that will allow for a much wider and more inclusive use of the lawn. With the open grass oval in the center and the meeting circle at the far end, committees will have much more freedom to schedule activities outside while the weather permits. The Land Management Leadership Team will be organizing to move ahead with even more outdoor changes.

In addition to Soulful Sundown, there are ongoing discussions for more spiritual events on Friday nights at Shelter Rock. Potluck dinners along with community building activities could become a monthly event in addition to Friday night Worship.

And now we come to the Opportunities to Serve. In the Strategic Plan conversations, this did not only mean ways to serve our outside community but ways to be in community with each other at Shelter Rock.

Members want to feel more connected to each other and that can only happen when they come together in spirit, passion, mission, and vision.

The Strategic Plan is a call to arms to every committee to bring forward programs and events that appeal to all ages in the congregation, and to speak to issues that are close to our hearts as Unitarian Universalists. It calls for all of us to volunteer when we can on Sunday afternoons and Friday nights when we begin to schedule congregational meals together. We are not looking to hand off all these activities to staff but to allow members to cook and clean together in community. So many of you expressed a desire for more hands on experiences at UUCSR. That can only happen if you step up and offer your time.

As we begin a new year with Rev. Dr. Fenimore, Rev. Brooks, and Rev. Olson, along with our new intern Erol Delos Santos, there are many opportunities to serve the congregation which will feed your soul and maybe your stomach as well. Just put your name out there and we will find a place for you that will deepen your commitment to Unitarian Universalism and give you joy.

Please contact Adam Barshak (abarshak@uucsr.org or 516.472.2921) to add your name to the list of volunteers-on-call. Thank you!

Milestones

Through the UUCSR Quest newsletter, we mark milestones in the lives of our members. Milestones include the celebration of rites of passage: Infant Dedications, Coming of Age, weddings, and funerals. But there are many other meaningful, memorable moments from our daily lives that can be shared and honored within the religious community.

Milestones include the events that challenge us or bring sorrow, those that inspire hope, call forth our prayers, and bring us joy. Everything from getting a first driver’s license, to a first or next job, the loss of a job, acquiring a home, moving to a new home, welcoming a child or grandchild, celebrating a retirement, marking an anniversary of any sort, and more. We hope you will choose to share your milestones with the ministers and members of the UU Congregation at Shelter Rock. Please contact ministryteam@uucsr.org or call Suzanne Viverito (917.557.3247).
Join the UUCSR Choir!

September signals the return of the choir and it is a great time to bring more music in YOUR life! Come sing with us! Singing builds connection, and elicits empathy, joy, good-health, and low-blood pressure! Ask any choir member and they will be able to add to this list. Take that simple step and join the choir!

We may be socially distanced and masked, but that doesn’t stop us from being a warm, supportive group of music lovers committed to enriching our community with song.

Rehearsals are Thursday evenings, 7:30-9 PM in the Social Hall, and on Sundays at 10 AM in the Worship Hall to prepare for the service that follows at 11 AM. All are welcome! For more information, contact Music Director Stephen Michael Smith (ssmith@uucsr.org).

Calling All Instruments!

The Shelter Rock Jazz Ensemble invites all instrumentalists to join in a season of fellowship, learning, and groove! The Jazz Ensemble rehearses weekly on Sunday mornings before the Service, and performs at the Service about once per month, playing jazz classics by legends like Miles Davis, John Coltrane, and Duke Ellington. No previous experience with jazz or improvisation required—you’ll learn all you need to know by being in rehearsal with us. A couple of years experience on your instrument, as well as the ability to read music, is helpful, but not required. Rehearsals begin on Sunday, September 18, at 9 AM. Please contact Dan Pratt at 347.249.6984 or dpratt@uucsr.org if interested.

You’ve certainly seen what we do; now be a part of the fun!

Can U Uke?

The UUCSR Uke Group strums again starting Wednesday, September 14. Join online via Zoom at 6 PM on the 2nd and 4th Wednesdays of each month.

Right now, this is NOT a teaching class, so it’s important to have some knowledge of basic chords and strumming. Everyone has the opportunity to present songs of their choice which we as a group can learn. The idea is to have FUN, maybe learn a new song or two, new chords, and strumming techniques.

If you are interested, please email Steven Schwartz, Worship Coordinator (sschwartz@uucsr.org). Questions? Please contact Charlene Greenberg (cdqsoph@gmail.com)

Cabaret XX Rehearsals Begin Soon

The Cabaret XX Planning Team learned that the Shelter Rock building would be closed on Monday and Wednesday evenings; The decision directly impacted Cabaret’s rehearsal schedule. Rehearsals have been arranged as planned but now in the HH Lounge by appointment on Monday and Wednesday evenings beginning on September 12, 2022.

Please contact Richard Bock, Cabaret Music Director at rbock@optonline.net to join the cast of Cabaret XX and receive a copy of the rehearsal schedule.

Cabaret at the Rock is the fundraising event for the Ed Miller Memorial Music Scholarship Fund. We look forward to a gala show on Saturday, November 5, 2022. It's not too soon to mark your calendars for this fun-filled evening of entertainment.

Welcome to the Official Kick-Off of the 2022–2023 Congregation Year!

There is much to share with you about Shelter Rock’s operational improvements. You will notice several at Homecoming on September 18, 2022.

Lobby Patio
When you look out onto the upper portion of the meadow from the Main Lobby, you will see the progress being made on the Patio redesign. Started in August, the hardscaping portion of the project is scheduled to end mid-September, with seeding of grass and new plantings thereafter. The new design provides for a larger patio surface for events, an elliptical walkway that is accessibility-friendly, a sensory garden and a multi-purpose seating ring. (This is the culmination of a CAPEX-funded project.)

Kiosks
Six digital signs have been installed at our most frequent entryways. Programming is underway for event calendar integration, state-of-the-art way finding, and more. Please take a look and stay tuned for planned demonstrations to learn about all of the integrations expected to be completed very soon. (This is another culmination of a CAPEX-funded project.)

Main Lobby
Improvements to traffic flow and aesthetics are being implemented. The oversized plants need to be re-homed. If you are interested in permanently adopting any plants, please contact me to arrange pickup (abarshak@uucsr.org, 516.472.2921).

Member Directory
Please visit myuucsr.org to confirm your current information in the UUCSR database that is used to generate the UUCSR Member Directory and Who’s Who of Committees at UUCSR. Please be sure to update permissions for publication of your information as well as review accuracy of the data. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact Jen Sappell (jsappell@uucsr.org or 516.472.2980).

Telephone System
A planned outage of telephone service is scheduled for Wednesday, September 7, 2022, 3–5 pm for installation of new switching technology. I apologize for the inconvenience. eMail will not be affected.

Emergency Preparedness
It has been ten years since Hurricane Sandy ravaged Long Island, and I have been reminded that Hurricane season is upon us. Your faith community is here to support you if a natural disaster strikes again. Please do not hesitate to reach out for help. NY RENEWS has prepared a very helpful Hurricane and Blackout Guide with helpful information and a place to collect vital information in ADVANCE of any emergency. I wish you a safe and easy hurricane season.

The Unitarian Universalist Congregation at Shelter Rock Ministerial Search Committee has announced that a new minister, Rev. David Carl Olson, will soon join the congregation as associate minister for congregational life.

Olson will join Rev. Dr. Natalie Fenimore and Rev. Jaye Brooks in ministering to the Manhasset religious community on Shelter Rock Rd.

A graduate of Brown University and Andover Newton Theological School, Olson has served Unitarian Universalist congregations in Massachusetts, Michigan, and Maryland.

He has a history of working in collaboration with other ministers, staff, and lay leadership to fulfill the mission and visions of the communities.

He is deeply committed to the eight Principles that form the faith foundation for Unitarian Universalists, including the newly adopted Principle that embraces work to dismantle racism and other oppressions.

Olson has an engaging worship style, enlivened by his theater and performance background. He will join the congregation in September 2022.
The 8th Principle: Building A Culture of Inclusion with Paula Cole Jones

Paula Cole Jones is the founder of ADORE (A Dialogue on Race & Ethnicity), a former president of DRUUMM (Diverse and Revolutionary Unitarian Universalist Multicultural Ministries), and an independent consultant specializing in multicultural competencies and institutional change. She served as a Interim Congregational Life Consultant for the Central East Region from 2018–2020.

Virtual Workshop offered by LIAC (Long Island Area Council of Unitarian Universalist Congregations)
Register and Pay HERE
$25 (after 50 percent discount provided to members of LI UU congregations) Zoom link provided upon registration and payment.

The 8th Principle, the proposed addition to our 7 UU Principles is worded: We, the member congregations of the Unitarian Universalist Association, covenant to affirm and promote journeying toward spiritual wholeness by working to build a diverse multicultural Beloved Community by our actions that accountably dismantle racism and other oppressions in ourselves and our institutions.

About the workshop Paula writes: “We, Unitarian Universalists, are called to build the Beloved Community. To do that, UUs must attend to the unfinished business of dismantling racism and oppression in our congregations and Association and with our community partners. How do we stand in solidarity with the social movements of our times and how do they change us? The goals of the workshop are to share a framework for how collaboration and accountability shapes the racial and social justice history of institutions in the United States and of UU congregations and to engage LIAC participants in an interactive experience of the transformative power of the 8th Principle.”

This workshop is for all congregations:
• those who have already endorsed the Eighth Principle and are figuring out how to implement it
• those who are working to endorse it
• those who have not yet begun to consider the Eighth Principle

The Inquirers Series, an interactive program to learn about Unitarian Universalism and UUCSR, will begin again Sunday, October 16, 2022. Attendees will meet Shelter Rock ministers and staff members running the religious education, worship, music, and social justice programs. All are welcome and encouraged to join.

Go to uucsr.org and click on the "Calendar." You will see the dates and times generally running from mid-October through December 4, culminating with a new-member ceremony in December for all those who wish to join the congregation.

My wife and I were married by past Senior Minister Rev. Paul Johnson some 14 years ago. We really knew very little about the Unitarian Universalist faith, but decided to check it out. I was raised as a reform Jewish person, but always felt uncomfortable with the beliefs I was being taught. After sitting through the introductory sessions here at UUCSR, we both decided to join. I finally discovered what it means to belong to a community whose covenant affirms that “Love is the doctrine of this congregation, the Quest for Truth is its sacrament, and Service is its Prayer.” That meant the world to me. I was now free to search for truth and meaning, and reminded of the importance of treating others with acts of love and kindness.

We felt genuinely welcomed here at Shelter Rock and we have made many wonderful friends. Every person has inherent worth and dignity. Each new member brings to us something very special and something of value that helps us all grow as a community as we aspire to become more loving, inclusive, thoughtful, and caring.

We welcome not only individuals, but also parents looking to raise their children with humanistic values in an environment that fosters their development into compassionate and productive adults.

Please join us for this interactive Inquirers series starting on Sunday, October 16, at noon, after the Sunday Worship Service. You will begin a wonderful exploration of ideas and history and more. If you have any questions, please contact Jeff Schiff (jeffreyshiff@gmail.com or 516.305.3334).
The Quest

Social Justice Coordinator

To Serve Human Need
When the Shelter Rock UU Congregation gathers for worship the gathered recite an affirmation whose words include “to serve human need.” As the UUCSR faith community comes together from summer activities, members may be wondering how they can serve human need in the coming congregational year. Each of the program committees provides unique opportunities to fulfill this aspect of our covenant. Here are some of the ways that the UUCSR Social Justice ministry seeks to do that.

The Social Justice Committee serves as a catalyst for several other groups. At its monthly meetings, members plan projects according to needs at the local, state, national, and international levels. The committee stays abreast of trends in the wider UU world, especially initiatives of the Side With Love campaign. Currently, the Committee is collaborating with Upholding Humanity, a multi-faith, multi-cultural Nassau County group, to plan ways to assist Afghan and Ukrainian refugees. Other initiatives include participation in UU the Vote and the UU Campaign for Reproductive Justice. You can join the committee on Zoom on the third Wednesday of the month.

The Mental Health Sub-Committee of the Social Justice Committee seeks to alleviate the stigma of mental illness through hosting educational programs and sponsoring space for local support groups of the National Alliance on Mental Illness (NAMI). Check the UUCSR calendar of events for meeting date and time.

The LGBTQ+ group is another Sub-Committee of the Social Justice Committee. This group serves as both a program committee and a support group for members of the LGBTQ+ community and its allies. They regularly meet every Friday night from 6:30 – 8:00 PM, except for the second Friday of the month when they meet at 6:00 PM. Thus, anyone who wants to participate in the LGBTQ+ meeting and also attend Soulful Sundown at 7:30 PM can do so. The first half hour is for check in and the remaining hour is either a business meeting or a facilitated conversation on a topic. These gatherings also serve as time for event planning and education on justice needs in the LGBTQ+ community. Check the UUCSR calendar of events for the topic of the gathering you’d like to attend.

Another vital group in the UUCSR Social Justice sphere is the Racial Justice Sub-Committee. This group provides opportunities to learn to recognize and combat racism, white supremacy, and other forms of oppression in our own lives, our faith community, and in the various spheres of local and national civic institutions. Its members work closely with the Eighth Principle Task Force to support implementation of this Principle. You’re welcome to join the Sub-Committee on Zoom on the third Monday of the month.

Members of all the Social Justice groups welcome newcomers to join them as we covenant and affirm to serve human need.

Supporting Those Experiencing Hunger
The Social Justice Committee invites you to bring donations of non-perishable food items to the red basket inside the Main Lobby. The congregational pantry by the kitchen door is for anyone in need. Once that pantry is stocked, we donate to local food pantries.

Friday Nights with the LGBTQ+ Group Online
The LGBTQ+ Sub-Committee sponsors a weekly get-together on Friday evenings. The LGBTQ+ community and their allies are ALL welcome. The topic for September 9 is “Stories from Your Summer.” On September 16, the topic is “Difficulties around eating due to allergies, medical conditions, etc.” To join the meeting, visit https://uucsr.org/calendar/ for any Friday you wish. Check in: 6:30 PM. Facilitated conversation: 7:00 – 8:00 PM except the second Friday of the month when check in is at 6:00 PM and facilitated conversation is from 6:30 – 7:20 PM to accommodate those who wish to attend Soulful Sundown.

TORTURE IN OUR NAME
The Moral Call to End Solitary Confinement

MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2022 | 7:00 PM

featuring
REV. RON STIEF Executive Director of NRCAT, and ordained minister in the United Church of Christ

JOHNNY PEREZ Director of U.S. Prisons Program and former Safe Entry Advocate

Torture in Our Name is a compelling new 35-minute documentary that showcases the tenacity and resilience of people who have faced the torture of solitary confinement first-hand and are working to end it once and for all. The film traces the stories of campaigns in Louisiana, New Jersey, and New York in which survivors of solitary and their allies have mounted successful legislative campaigns in their respective states, with New Jersey and New York being the first two states in the nation to legislate bans on long-term isolated confinement. This film will leave you inspired to get engaged. Let your light shine and find your place in the movement.

Veatch Grantee Building People Power in Iowa

I had the privilege to visit Iowa Citizens for Community Improvement (CCI) during the last weekend of August and participate in the first large membership meeting they have had since the beginning of the COVID pandemic. Veatch has supported Iowa CCI for many years, and looking at the pictures from the many campaigns they have waged and won, I could see how our long-term funding model has played an important role in making this possible.

At the leadership meeting, I was impressed by the strength of CCI members’ commitment with their community, and by the depth of their understanding of the complex issues affecting them, from industrial agriculture polluting their water and taking over the land, to the negative environmental impact of new proposed CO2 pipelines, to racially discriminatory practices by police and predatory payday lenders.

Speaking at the event was also Sulma Arias, the new Executive Director of Veatch grantee People’s Action Institute, the national organizing network of which Iowa CCI is a part. Sulma talked about how in Iowa and everywhere they are trying to promote an Organizing Revival, an effort to increase the depth and scale of organizing in order to achieve the change that we need. Many Iowa CCI members generously met with me over breakfast the following day to share stories and learn more about Veatch. They wanted to make sure I let you know that they appreciate enormously your support, which to a significant extent has changed their lives, and that they plan to continue fighting the good fight to transform Iowa, and the country.

The Importance of Being Ernest, by Oscar Wilde

Cecily Cardew and Gwendolen Fairfax are both in love with the same mythical suitor. Jack Worthing has wooed Gwendolen as Ernest while Algernon has also posed as Ernest to win the heart of Jack’s ward, Cecily. When all four arrive at Jack’s country home on the same weekend—the “rivals” to fight for Ernest’s undivided attention and the “Ernests” to claim their beloveds, pandemonium breaks loose. Only a forgetful nursemaid and an old, discarded handbag can save the day!

This article demonstrates the congregation’s stewardship of the Earth and commitment to the Seventh Principle.

Electricity: Carbon Free?

Our nation uses a bit more than 4 trillion kilowatt-hours of electrical energy every year. Dividing that number by 8,760, the number of hours in a year, gives average power in kilowatt-hours at any time. Our peak power demand is a bit more than twice that average.

Fifty-eight percent of that electricity is generated by burning coal or natural gas. It is easy to compute the ratio of tons of CO2 emitted per megawatt-hour of electricity generated by each source. The difference between the two ratios is negligible, so natural gas is really no cleaner than coal. Natural gas is cheaper, costing just 6 cents per kilowatt-hour; coal costs twice that much.

Our carbon free ways to produce are nuclear, hydropower, wind, and solar. Nuclear, which accounts for 19 percent of our electricity, costs 17 cents per kilowatt-hour. Wind and solar each cost about 4 cents per kilowatt-hour. Unfortunately, they are intermittent.

An important consideration for any of these energy sources is the amount of space required. A one-hundred square mile wind farm, using our largest wind turbines, could generate about 1 percent of our peak electricity needs. The various, existing or proposed, offshore wind farms each account for a fraction of that amount. Then there is hydropower, which requires a yet much larger area for the same energy yield.

Solar panels take up less space. A 50-square-foot area of panels generates about 1 kilowatt. Solar panel arrays spread over 1500 square miles could supply all our electricity, even allowing for intermittency. A starting point is roof top solar on private homes, schools, businesses, and houses of worship. Currently in development is a product called SolarSkin, which provides a decorative film camouflaging solar panels underneath.

Lithium batteries are the most direct way to store electrical energy till needed. Alternatively, we have hydrogen fuel cells where the hydrogen is obtained by electrolysis of water. Home back-up battery systems will become common as we transition to heat pumps for home heating. Large battery banks, storing many megawatt-hours of electrical energy are under construction.

Distribution is key. For its constancy, nuclear is an essential part of the mix. But vastly increasing the proportion of wind and solar will provide inexpensive and reliable electricity. Building tens of thousands of turbines, installing many millions of solar panels, along with manufacturing the needed energy storage units, will provide many local jobs.

Water Resources and Bureaucracy—How I Saved the NYC Water Board $5 Million and Lost My Job.

From a Ted Talk, by Wolstan Brown

Wolstan Brown worked on the design and construction of the huge NYC Water Tunnel 3 project, the largest construction project ever attempted by New York City. He was able to find huge savings in cost, but the NYC Board of Water Resources terminated his job as a result. Find out why in this tragicomedy story.

The talk includes:

- Previous water tunnel design history, the necessity, the starting conditions, and the required scope.
- A brief overview of water tunnel design theory.
- How dynamic programming theory was applied to NYC Water Tunnel 3.
- What happened?
- Where are we now?

The talk will show a number of maps and pictures of the tunnel.

Hadley House Residents’ Association

New Beginnings

There is a rhythm to the universe that was upended during Covid that made it hard to remember what day it was, yet easier to understand Einstein’s statement, “Time does not exist. We invented it. Time is what the clock says.” There is only now.

We are only weeks away from the fall equinox of 2022 on Thursday, September 22. Our summer is winding down, although Hadley House residents are still taking vacations or returning from them. Even the mail and flow of packages in the lobby seems to have slowed down. However, our weekly barbecue is still going strong as Neil (Doc) Tonnesen fires up the charcoal and does the grilling. Oh, yes, and our Friday evening Happy Hour continues. As Jerry Jalazo says, he often thinks of Hadley House as Happy House.

We are overcoming a difficult time. Residents have internalized precautions, assessed personal risk, and exercised sensibility within the guidelines of the CDC, and in consideration of our vulnerable population. Thankfully we have been free of severe Covid illness. We have survived and adapted.

We now look forward to a more active fall with the return of some popular in-person programs and new ones for all to enjoy. Activities in the works include an Ice Cream Social and Movie Night hosted by our very own Caring Circle; the return of Carol McHugh’s popular Great Decisions. An eclectic Book Club kicks off this month, organized by a recent new resident, Evelyn Kuntz. We began with The Last of the Mohicans, and continue with The Sun Also Rises. Regular activities of Mahjong, Arts and Crafts, and Meditation/ Zen Walk continue.

All Hadley House apartments are presently occupied with the addition of our three new residents: Joan Doulos, Antonia (Toni) Bracchi, and Mary Lou Nolan. We expect to officially greet them with a Welcome Tea in the fall. Teddy Sklover reminds us that social connections are good for well-being and help us make a better tomorrow together. These inclusive, open connections are the magic ingredient at Hadley House.

Whatever your interests, you can choose to participate in current activities or not. Or you can create new opportunities and programs. Whether you are a social butterfly or a happy hermit, you’ll find your niche in the community that is Hadley House. If you are interested in learning more about Hadley House, contact Susan Bagnini, at 516.944.8457, for a visit.

We can smile as we look forward to the annual change of the season, which reminds Lois Wolfson of words by Raquel Franco:

And the sun took a step back,

the leaves lulled themselves to sleep,

and autumn was awakened.
