community events marking holidays and holy days.*

The Rev. Ned Wight

Preparing for the Holidays

Hanukkah is fast upon us (December 2-10), Solstice arrives in 19 days, and Christmas shortly thereafter. This tends to be a season of frenzied activity as our consumer culture kicks into high gear. In addition to marking Hanukkah in word and music, Rev. Ned will explore the possibility of “unplugging the Christmas machine” (quoting the title of a book by Jo Robinson and Jean C. Staeheli about “putting love and joy back into the season”). The annual Holiday Decorations Party, Women’s Group Holiday Sale and RE Art Reception will follow this Worship Service.

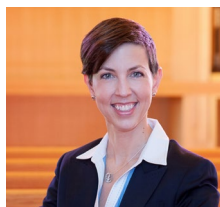

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 9, 2018, 11:00 AM

The Rev. Ned Wight

What About Handel’s Messiah?

This time of transitional ministerial leadership at UUCSR invites all sorts of hopes and expectations for the new minister. It’s easy to have these build up into a messianic vision of someone who will come and solve all our problems and fulfill all our dreams. How might the congregation prepare more realistically for its next ministerial leader, laying out areas of strength, areas of concern, and areas of opportunity? How might we strengthen the foundation upon which this new leadership can build? Ned will offer an assessment of where we are in our interim work and what tasks lie ahead. This year’s Messiah Sing in the Worship Room follows UU Café today. Singers and listeners are most welcome.

Giving Birth to the Light

As Unitarian religious educator, Sophia Lyon Fahs, has written “Each night a child is born is a holy night...” In the darkness of the winter season we celebrate the stories of the potential of all children to bring the light of truth, justice and love into the world. This universal truth is seen in the birth stories of Jesus, Moses, The Buddha and other religious and spiritual leaders which we tell to enlighten us. Our First Grade Religious Education class will present the Nativity Story.

The Longest Night of the Year, A Spiritual Place

At this Solstice Service we will take time to honor the creation we are part of, meditate on our life's passage into another year, and celebrate the ritual of burning the Yule Log together. Willow will be singing at this Worship Service.

Stories and Carols for the Heart

Stories and songs that warm the heart are integral to the Christmas season. The Ministry Team will share their favorite seasonal stories, and the congregation will have a chance to request their favorite carols to sing together. Since it is the 23rd of the month, we will also remember persons cut off from community in solitary confinement.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 24, 2018, 5:00 PM & 7:00 PM

Christmas Eve Candlelight Services

The UUCSR Ministry Team

The First Christmas Reimagined

(The 5:00 p.m. service is designed especially for families)

This year's Christmas Eve services reimagine what the first Christmas might have been like from the diverse perspectives of the characters in the original nativity story: Mary and Joseph, the animals in the stable, the star, the angels, the shepherds, the wise men and the baby. Reflections, carols and anthems will lead us into our traditional candle lighting and singing of "Silent Night." The Jazz Ensemble and the Children's Choir will participate in the 5 PM Family Service, and the Choir will take part in both services. All are welcome.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2018, 9:00 AM

Peace and Meditation in the Chapel

Please join us in the Chapel for a brief time of reflection and meditation on peace in a time of conflict and turmoil.

SUNDAY, DECEMBER 30, 2018, 9:00 AM

The Rev. Jennifer L. Brower

Poised on The Threshold

In the words of Ralph Waldo Emerson, which were often quoted by our Minister Emeritus, The Rev. Dr. Barry M. Andrews, "The years teach much, which the days never know." This Sunday morning, poised between the end of one year and the beginning of another, we gather in worship to reflect upon and share some of what we have learned through the passing of time about life and goodness, the Spirit and truth, meaning and what matters, and to express our hopes for the days ahead. Come, bring a quote or a reading or your own moment of epiphany to share.
