FREEDOM SCHOOL
Examining Slavery and its Consequences for the 21st Century

Saturdays
February 22, February 29, March 7, and March 14, 2020

10:00 AM–12:00 PM
RE Room 4

Using materials from the New York Times 1619 Project and other relevant texts, we will examine the history of chattel slavery in the United States and its effects to this day; and the policies of the US government towards Native Americans in history and today.

Register with Sharyn Esposito sesposito@uucsr.org or 516.472.2960

Participants will receive reading materials upon registration.

Facilitated by:
Herb Waldren, Claire Deroche, Bob Nuxoll, WinterFlower Robinson, and Jim Smith.

Attending all sessions beneficial but not mandatory.